

CPAs Helping Schools

It's Grant Season for CHS

(l to r) Heather Grosso, teacher; Lori Frodine, Principal and Susan Shafer, Librarian, of Parker Elementary (HISD) were presented a CHS grant for a Guided Reading Library by CHS member Tonja Rodriguez.

(l to r) Courtney Hudgins, Career and Technology Director, Buck Wenglar, High School Principal, and Laura Kubena, Accounting Teacher accepted a CHS grant from Paul Vanek, Vice President Houston CPA Society. East Bernard High School (East Bernard ISD) will use the grant for new textbooks and online automated accounting simulators. The new textbooks will be a welcome addition to the Accounting I class. The current textbooks are over ten years old and are very outdated. Laura Kubena via email: "On behalf of East Bernard High School and the Accounting I class, we would like to send out our sincere appreciation to the Houston CPA Society for this generous donation."

Jack Fields Elementary School (Humble ISD) received a CHS grant for their Mid-Summer Magic of Reading program. Holding the "big check" are (l to r) Melinda Butler, Academic Lead Teacher (literacy coach), Gail Neely, CHS volunteer, and Karen Weeks, Principal.

Cooper Elementary (Spring ISD) was the recipient of a CHS grant for the after school Ninja Writing Program. (center) PE Coach Dietrich Jones accepted the check from CHS volunteer Gail Neely.

CHS volunteer Gary Hoffman presented Scott Collegiate Academy (Galveston ISD) with a CHS grant for its Scott Saturday Superstars tutoring program. Accepting the check were Debra Owens, Principal, and Robert Balshaw, teacher in charge of the Superstars.